

PABLO CASADO

Non-Resident Fellow

Pablo Casado is Member of the Spanish Parliament where he serves as spokesperson in the jointed Committee Congress-Senate for European Affairs, and as member of the Foreign Affairs and the International Cooperation Committees. He is also the Spanish representative at COSAC (Conference of Community and European Affairs Committees of Parliaments of the European Union) and the Parliamentary Assembly of the Union for the Mediterranean.

He has been chief of staff of the former President of the Spanish Government, José María Aznar, senior adviser to the Vicepresident of Madrid's regional Government, and Member of the regional Parliament of Madrid where he served as spokesperson in the Committee on the Judiciary and Homeland Affairs.

He is a member of the Bar Association of Madrid, he holds a LLM from the department of public law of Rey Juan Carlos University, and a LLB from Complutense University. He also holds a BS in Business Studies from Rey Juan Carlos University, and completed executive programs with the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, the Government Affairs Institute at Georgetown University, Instituto de Empresa, Deusto, IESE and IEB.

Keep up with events and news from CTR

SUBSCRIBE (HTTP://SAIS-JHU.US2.LIST-MANAGE.COM/SUBSCRIBE/POST?U=ECD50DD626CF374511464E688&ID=

THE CENTER FOR TRANSATLANTIC RELATIONS

 1717 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE, NW
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20036

 CALL US: 202.663.5880

 TRANSATLANTIC@JHU.EDU (MAILTO:TRANSATLANTIC@JHU.EDU)